

CIUSSS de l'Ouest-de-l'Île de Montréal
Revue de Presse – Hommage à Manny Batshaw

20 juillet 2016

Centre intégré
universitaire de santé
et de services sociaux de l'Ouest-del'Île-de-Montréal

Québec

REVUE DE PRESSE

Hommage à Manny Batshaw

GLOBAL NEWS	2
THE GAZETTE	3
CBC NEWS	4
CTV NEWS	5
CJN	6
COMMUNIQUÉ DE PRESSE – Déclaration du maire	7

Quebec sociologist Manny Batshaw laid to rest

2016-07-20

Leading Quebec sociologist Manny Batshaw dies at 101

2016-07-18

Rachel Lau

“It was magic to witness his interactions with, and love for, our kids, striking to watch their eyes light up when they realize there really was a Mr. Batshaw and endearing to witness their first meetings with him,”

- Judy Martin, past president of Batshaw Youth and Family Centres’ board of directors and current board member of the CIUSSS de l’Ouest de-l’Île-de-Montréal

Manny Batshaw, founder of youth welfare services, dies at age 101

2016-07-18

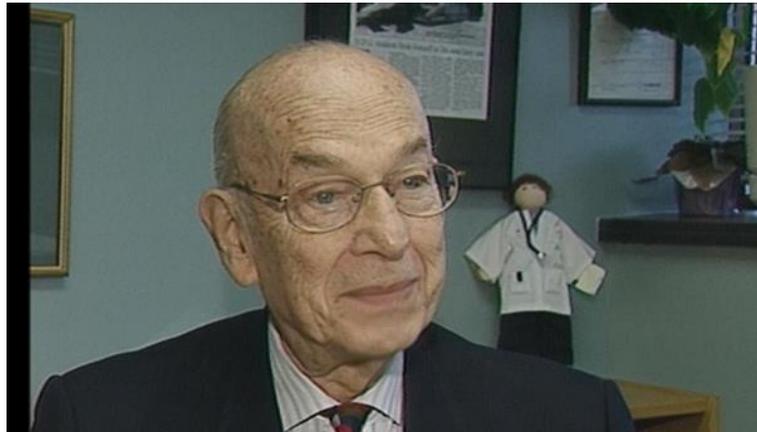

John Meagher

Manny Batshaw, the Montreal social worker who headed the 1975 inquiry into conditions in Quebec's juvenile institutions that set the stage for Quebec's youth protection legislation, then lent his name to the Batshaw Youth and Family Centres, died Monday. He was 101.

Child-welfare trailblazer Manny Batshaw dies at 101

2016-07-18

"Manny valued children and youths and believed in them. He acted as their voice, even in the face of adversity. This man had the courage and strength to ensure children's needs were met, rights were respected and that child welfare work included both parents and families,"

- Assunta Gallo, director of youth protection for the Batshaw Centres of the CIUSSS de l'Ouest-de-l'Île-de-Montréal, said in a statement.

Manny Batshaw laid to rest as mourners recall 'a force of nature'

2016-07-20

Revered social worker Manny Batshaw dead at 101

2016-07-18

A well-known and respected child social worker and activist, Manny Batshaw dedicated himself to youth in difficulty, spearheading what was called the Batshaw Committee Report in 1975.

MONTREAL COMMUNITY STALWART MANNY BATSHAW DIES AT 101

2016-07-19

Batshaw, who died July 18, was considered the architect of Montreal's Jewish community for his work, from 1968 on, in structuring some of the community's main institutions and for his renown as a discreet community "fixer."

Communiqué de presse

Déclaration du maire suite au décès de Monsieur Manuel G. Batshaw

Death of Manuel G. Batshaw

2016-07-19

« Grand activiste pour le bien-être de nos enfants, ce travailleur social de formation a posé les premiers jalons de l'enjeu de l'enfance au Québec. Au cours des années, la société a bénéficié de sa vision et de sa passion pour améliorer concrètement le sort des jeunes et moins jeunes » - M. Denis Coderre